Dear Ms. Boody:

Our client, United Association Political Education Committee (UAPEC), has instructed us to reply to your notice dated December 23, 2004. We have enclosed a copy of that notice for your convenience.

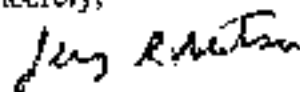

The following actions have been taken by the UAPEC in response to your notice:

1. The contribution to Bryan Kennedy for Congress has been redesignated to the 2004 General Election. Notice to the Kennedy campaign is attached.
2. The $1,800 excess contribution to Friends of Tim Holden for Congress has been requested to be refunded by the campaign. Notice to the Holden campaign is attached.
3. The $6,000 excess contribution to Broomfield for Congress has been requested to be refunded by the campaign. Notice to the Broomfield campaign is attached.
4. The $1,000 excess contribution to Betty Castor for Senate has been requested to be refunded by the campaign. Notice to the Castor campaign is attached.
5. The contribution to King for Congress has been redesignated to the 2004 primary election. Notice to the King campaign is attached.
6. The $2,500 excess contribution to Al Green for Congress has been requested to be refunded by the campaign. Notice to the Green campaign is attached.

An amended report will be submitted electronically to provide addresses for all contributions made. This is additional support for Line 23.

Please adjust your records to reflect the above information. If you should have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jerome J. Robertson, CPA
